PONGAL CELEBRATION REPORT – 2020

The Thai Pongal was celebrated on 11th January 2020 at School of Allied Health Sciences, VMRF, Salem. Mrs. Annapoorani Shanmugasundaram, Founder Madam Chancellor, VMRF invited as a chief guest of this celebration. Dr. B. Sendilkumar, Director, SAHS presided over the function and delivered the speech about “Significance of Pongal festival and uphold the traditional values”. Dr. K. Meenakshi Sundaram, Medical Director, VIMS felicitated the event.

Mr. Balasubhramaniam, Senior Manager, VMRF and Dr. Karnan, Neurologist, VIMS were invited as guests of honour of the programme.

On account of this celebration, the students are split into five groups of ancient Tamilnadu landscapes like Kurunji, Mullai, Marudham, Neidhal, Paalai. Students came in their traditional dresses of different landscapes and they had arranged a model setup of landscapes in their college campus.

Several traditional games like Uri Adithal, Rangoli, kollattam, kummi pattu were conducted. Most of the students were involved and all the deserved students were appreciated with prizes by Dr. B. Sendilkumar.

The whole programme was well organized by Dr. Dhanasekar, Mrs. Parani, Ms. Swathi priya, Ms. Varshini and Students of SAHS.
