Spectacles Distribution - Report

Faculty of Allied health Sciences collaborates with India Vision Institute to prevent avoidable blindness.

India Vision Institute (IVI) is a not-for-profit registered trust with a desire to promote excellence in vision care delivery in India. Preventing 'preventable' blindness through timely intervention remains a key priority for IVI. With an aim to serve the underprivileged communities across world, especially children.

School of Allied Health Sciences, Salem along with IVI conducted eye screening programme in Govt. Middle School, Pallampatty village, Veerapandi (po), Salem on 1st November 2019. The free spectacles were distributed by Dean.Dr.B.Sendilkumar for needy students.
